

License Agreement for non-OTA members
Organic Trade Association's Organic Fiber Processing Standards

The Organic Trade Association (OTA), located at 60 Wells Street in Greenfield, Massachusetts as sole owner of the following "Organic Trade Association's Organic Fiber Processing Standards" (standards) copyright 2004 has agreed to issue a copy of the standards to the following non-OTA member applicant company, provided the applicant agrees to the following:

- 1) The applicant company agrees not to distribute, photocopy or otherwise reproduce and distribute any copies of the standards to any other person or company without the expressed written permission of the Organic Trade Association.
- 2) The Organic Trade Association, at its sole discretion, may revoke this license if the Organic Trade Association determines that the applicant company has distributed copies of the standards document or has otherwise misused or violated US copyright laws or the standards.
- 3) Any violations of US copyright law, as related to "Organic Trade Association's Fiber Processing Standards" will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.
- 4) Upon being certified to these standards, the certified entity will have the opportunity to participate in future promotional programs in support of the standard. Until such time, the certified entity may use the phrase "Certified according to Organic Trade Association's Organic Fiber Processing Standards" on promotional and products that have met these standards.
- 5) The cost of this license is $500 with payment due to the Organic Trade Association, PO Box 547, 60 Wells Street, Greenfield, MA 01302 in advance of receiving a licensed copy of the standard. Note: OTA members may receive a copy of these standards free of charge. Please call Linda Lutz, Member Services Coordinator, at 413-774-7511 ext 19 to learn more about becoming an OTA member.
